Making Maps

Group Paints Map Mural in Mattapoisett

On Saturday, June 3, the Southeastern Massachusetts Council of the Telephone Pioneers of America painted a 20-foot by 30-foot map of the United States of America on the playground of the Old Hammondtown School. This map is for students and staff to use and enjoy as a learning tool.

Shannon Dallaire, Vice President of the Council, and her husband Jim, and Gene Pursley and his wife Evelyn from the Bristol Life Pioneers, were assisted by Principal Rosemary Bowman of Old Hammondtown School, and Margaret DeMello and Daune Smith, members of the staff.

Just another good reason that "Mattapoisett is special."

Mattapoisett Yacht Club Rigs Up For Great Season

By Paul Hyde

Whether you're into racing, cruising, or socializing, the Mattapoisett Yacht Club offers a full calendar of events for the 2000 boating season. The yacht club, which is located at Mattapoisett Boat Yard on Ned's Point Road, has enjoyed increased popularity as new members have been drawn to its unique combination of friendly competition and casual club activities.

The favorite club activity is the Wednesday night race series, which attracted 32 yachts last year and will have even more racing this year. Starting on June 28, the yacht club will host one race every Wednesday night, starting at 6:00 pm. The races are grouped into two series

On the cover: *The newly-renamed "Salty the Seahorse," a tell-tale landmark on the corner of Route 6 and North Street in Mattapoisett, returned to its rightful place of honor last weekend after undergoing extensive renovations and repairs. with four or five races in each series. Trophies are awarded for the top three yachts in each class, in each race, in each series, and for the yachts with the best cumulative total for the season. The yachts are divided into three classes based on their handicap: PHRF Class A, which is generally for boats over 29 feet; PHRF Class B, which is generally for boats 20 to 29 feet; and Portsmouth Class C, which is for small, one-design yachts. After each race there is a casual gathering at the club to announce the results, award trophies, and recount race highlights.

You don't have to have a large yacht and a big crew to get in on the Wednesday night action, anybody with a one-design "dinghy" can compete in Class C, which races under the Portsmouth handicap system. It is unique because it allows yachts of different one-design classes, such as Sunfish, Lasers, Beetlecats, and Hereshoff 12s, to compete against each other. Small boat sailors will find this to be an excellent entry level racing format, with lots of room to maneuver, lots of advice from the experienced sailors, and challenging competition regardless of your level of expertise. In addition to the Wednesday night races, there will also be a small boat regatta on July 8.

Class A and B races are open to all yachts with current PHRF certificates. No certificate is required for Class C. Racing fees are $35 per series for members, $50 for non-members. The races usually start in the vicinity of Ned's Point so spectators can get an excellent vantage spectacular gathering of 12-meter yachts, all former America's Cup contenders, and some lucky MYC members, along with other area yacht clubs will be on board to participate in the Sail for Buzzards Bay Charity Regatta.

In addition to races sponsored by the Mattapoisett Yacht Club, boats will be participating in major local races, such as the Figawi, the Tower Race, the Buzzards Bay Regatta, the Quisset Round the Bay Race, and the Hurricane Cup.

If cruising is more your cup of tea, there will also be a Mattapoisett Yacht Club rendezvous at Hadley's Harbor on July 29, and another at Oak Bluffs on Friday, August 18. The highlight of the Oak Bluffs rendezvous is an impressive fireworks display launched from the bluffs at Ocean Park.

You don't have to own a boat to join the fun! Annual membership is very reasonable at $60 for the whole family, and there are sign-up sheets posted at the Mattapoisett Yacht Club where you can volunteer for crew member or race committee positions. Biodiversity Days is a challenge to citizens to familiarize themselves with the wealth of animal and plant species with which we share our communities and to identify in each participating town at least 200 species in back yards and the broader community. Participants will find, record, and learn about the component species of flora and fauna in their hometowns.

The EOEA encourages children and adults of all ages to participate in this event. The results from Biodiversity Days will be useful in continued efforts to

Mattapoisett Selectmen's Meeting

June 5, 2000

By Ilana Mackin

A regular meeting of the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen was called to order on Monday, June 5 at 7:00 pm by Chairman Paul Lambalot. Also present were Selectman Barry Denham, Selectman Ray Andrews and Executive Secretary Carol Adams.

As a first order of business the board met with Fire Chief Ronald Scott regarding the establishment of a Fire Station Building Committee. Chief Scott recommended to the board that the committee consist of five members including himself, Deputy Fire Chief Walter Morgardo, Selectman Barry Denham, Jean Toomey of the

With approval from Chairman Lambalot, Selectman Denham moved to appoint the five-member board as suggested. Per Chairman Lambalot's suggestion, Selectman Denham should serve as pro-tem chairman until they get things in order after the first meeting to be held at a date not set yet.

"We have a lot of research already done and with a lot of the towns in the state building (new fire stations), we've got a lot of base lines to go on and a lot of expertise out there," Chief Scott conveyed to the board.

At 7:15 pm, Selectman Andrews made the motion to accept the minutes from the Selectmen's May 22 meeting as well as the Executive Session minutes of May 22 and May 27. The board also moved the dog warrant for the year 2000 as it was presented and Chairman Lambalot confirmed that "this gives (Animal Control Officer Kathleen Masse) the authority to capture dogs." Ms. Adams added that it also gives her the authority to ticket the owners and bring them to court when they are non-compliant.

Selectman Andrews read into the record the recommendation to appoint Raymond M. Briggs as Tree Warden with a term to run until the next Annual Town Meeting on April 3, 2001. Mr. Briggs was also appointed as Measurer of Wood and Bark with a term to expire April 30, 2001. With a second by Selectman Denham, Chairman Lambalot made the comment: "I agree this is a good choice as he has been working along side Marshall (Pryce) for many years."

Ms. Adams provided a brief review of the Executive Secretary's Report by commenting that the weekly summer Band Concerts will begin on Wednesday, July 5 and run through August 23; she also reminded residents that a Special Town Election will be held on Tuesday, June 13 at Old Hammondtown School will be held regarding Annual Town Meeting override questions including rubbish collection, thermal imaging cameras for the Fire Department, and sewer engineering on Mattapoisett Neck.

In this week's incoming correspondence, Ms. Adams wanted to make special note to the public regarding an open seat on the Library Board of Trustees in light of the recent resignation of Clayton L. Hagy. Any interested individuals who wish to submit a letter of interest in sitting on this board may contact Ms. Adams in the Town Hall.

The board received a copy of a letter from Town Counsel Daniel C. Perry to Mark Rasmussen, the Executive Director of the Coalition for Buzzards Bay (CBB) regarding Mr. Perry's expressed disappointment and dismay in the CBB's intent to file a lawsuit against the town and the Secretary of Environmental Affairs because of the Secretary's decision not to require an environmental impact report in connection with the town's proposed Buzzards Bay Preservation Project.

Selectman Andrews commented that he spoke with Representative William Straus last week and was told that they are currently doing testing to validate the information that "Mark makes in his letter that was published in the papers."

At 7:35 pm, the board met with Harbormaster Steve Mach and Water/Sewer Superintendent William T. Nicholson regarding a new program through the Buzzards Bay Action Committee (BBAC), the Buzzards Bay Project (BBP), MA Coastal Zone Management (MCZM) and the Coalition for Buzzards Bay (CBB), that will help communities to work towards implementing no overboard discharge of oil into the water from boaters.

Mr. Nicholson explained to the board that through the BBAC and a grant from MCZM's Coastal Pollution Remediation Program, free bilge socks are being provided to coastal communities to disperse to boaters to use in their boats to absorb the oil that runs from the engine into the bilge discharge water from the boat.

The bilge socks are small specially designed devices that are simply placed under the bilge of the boat or in the case of larger boats under the engine as well as the bilge area. A special state of the art material inside the sock absorbs the oil and fuel run off but not the water, enabling the boater to discharge clean water bilge when necessary.

"What were asking people to do is at the end of the season bring the bilge socks back to us or let us know how much they used," said Mr. Mach. He also commented that they are easily disposed of through regular garbage pick-up as long as your garbage is processed through SEMASS.

"It's a great idea that they are doing all over Buzzards Bay," Mr. Mach said. "For bigger boats we'll give a couple of the socks."

An information flag and flyer with safe discharge tips will be given out with the free bilge socks that Mr. Nicholson estimates would normally cost $15 to $20 each. Boaters can stop by anytime to see the Harbormaster for a free bilge sock and information. "This is an excellent program and we hope it will be back next year," said Mr. Mach.

At 7:45 pm, the board met with Police Officer Mitchell Suzan in his representation of the Police Association regarding this years idea for a benefit concert. Officer Suzan asked the board on behalf of the association for permission to hold their fourth annual concert at Shipyard Park this year rather than at the YMCA Camp Massasoit as has been done in the past. The non-alcoholic, family affair with music by the Goodfellas is a new approach that the Police Association has taken in recent years to raise money for the Association that goes toward the Police Scholarship Fund as well as other community programs and support to the families of fallen officers. There will be SRTA buses to provide shuttles from the parking areas that will be used.

The association is trying not to hassle residents with telemarketing phone calls at night, according to Officer Suzan, and assured the board that the music they have chosen for the concert is appropriate and not loud, playing for only a couple hours.

The board agreed to approve the request of the Police Association to hold the concert in Ship Yard Park on Friday, August 18 with the stipulation that the board and the Police Association will discuss further the proper positioning and location of the stage in order to minimize sound travel from the music into residential areas.

Officer Suzan reported to the board on another matter the current status on the Police Association's campaign to raise money for the town Skate Park. Officer Suzan said that currently there is approximately $3,000 in the Town Skate Park Fund and Detective Mary Lions is working on lining up other donations that will include the option for people to donate individual concrete skating structures that will make up the park from jumps, ramps, platforms to benches that will have memorial plaques on them with a name and message for a loved one or friend.

"We're at a good stage," he said. "We just need the go ahead for the preparation." The Selectmen said the next meeting of town officials when the issue will be discussed for the commencement of Earth Removal will be held on June 8.

At 8:00 pm, with no further business to come before the board, they unanimously voted to adjourn for the evening until their next regularly scheduled meeting on Monday, June 19 at 7:00 pm.

May 25 meeting, the board met with Bill Washburn of the Marion Recreation Committee and a group of resident-volunteers who wanted to propose a project to refurbish the public playground at Marion's Silvershell Beach. Mr. Washburn introduced four women who have already done initial research into designs, purchasing new playground equipment, and who hope to begin a fund-raising campaign to pay for the project.

"We all have small children who use the playground ... and the equipment is not to code," said Joy Horstmann. "We propose to replace the swing set with one made out of aluminum ... which is a better material because of the salt-water environment."

The preliminary plans would also replace two other existing pieces of equipment — an aging slide and a "log cabin"-type structure — all of which are fairly old and in dire need of replacement to meet current safety codes. The proposal recommends that all three of the new structures be installed on sand, which is both inexpensive and better-suited for the barefoot, beach-going children who would use the facility.

"It's for the children from age two all the way up to ten," Ms. Horstmann said. "People are currently using the equipment at The Loft School ... we think this would be a great project and a great addition to the beach."

The volunteer group has offered to spearhead the fund-raising campaign to raise the needed $30,000 for the new equipment. Both the board members and Mr. Pickles offered their help and support on behalf of the town, and Selectman Dickerson pledged that the town would take care of the necessary excavating at the site and the permitting process with the Conservation Commission (ConCom).

Mr. Pickles advised that funds should be solicited through the Marion Recreation Committee for tax-deduction purposes. All donations should be made payable to the Town of Marion Recreation Committee, c/

In other matters, the board:

• Signed and approved a contract with Chief of Police Lincoln Miller through June 30, 2001.

project should yield some 300,000 shellfish in Marion waters, and "hopefully on Marion plates," mused Chairman Winters.

Selectman Schaefer noted receipt of an American flag donated in memory of George J. Duff, who served in World War I in 1918. The flag will be flown over Veterans Park in honor of Mr. Duff.

Mr. Pickles noted the sad passing of Gus Yankopoulis, an active participant in the Town of Wareham government and, most recently, a driving force with the Wareham Community Development Authority. "(Gus) was a true gentleman and has been involved in government as long as I have ... which is a long time," Mr. Pickles said. "He was really a fixture in being able to take advantage of community development grants."

There being no further matters to come before the board, they unanimously voted to adjourn for the evening at 7:44 pm. Due to the alternating summer meeting schedule, the board's next regular meeting will be held on Tuesday, June 20 at 7:00 pm.

Rochester Annual Town Meeting

June 5, 2000

By Kenneth J. Souza

The Annual Town Meeting for the Town of Rochester was called to order on Monday, June 5 at 7:40 pm by Town Moderator Greenwood Hartley, having noted the presence of a minimum quorum of 75 voters. The proceedings began with former Town Moderator Kirby Gilmore presented Mr. Hartley with a gavel for conducting the Town Meetings.

"My dad made this gavel for me," Mr. Gilmore said. "It suddenly occurred to me it wouldn't do me any good at home ... it comes from Rochester and it stays in Rochester."

After Mr. Hartley introduced the Boy Scouts from Rochester Troop 31 who were on hand to assist with handing out microphones during the meeting, Linda Towers came forward to make presentations on behalf of the Rochester Town Scholarship Committee. Ms. Towers first thanked the residents for contributing to their efforts and announced that a $500 Education Fund would be given to Memorial School to help supplement classroom libraries for new teachers.

Two individual scholarships were also awarded to graduating ORR students from Rochester — Lindsay Moore, the daughter of Paul and Sue Moore; and Brian Cavanaugh, son of Jana Cavanaugh and Donald C. Cavanaugh.

After a Salute to the Flag led by one of the Boy Scouts in attendance, Finance Committee (FinCom) Chairman Michael Costa made a brief presentation on the town's financial outlook for Fiscal Year 2001 going into the Annual Town Meeting. Mr. Costa noted that the town's revenues are "significantly dependent on both real estate taxes and SEMASS," and said that the operating budget for 2001 is estimated at $9.5 million. The breakdown is as follows: about 65 percent for the schools, 10 percent for public safety, 10 percent for fixed costs and debt services, 6.8 percent for general government, and 5 percent for public works.

This year's budget, as proposed on the 30-article Town Meeting warrant, would see an overall increase of $573,000 — or 6.4 percent over FY2000.

Before beginning the meeting proper, Mr. Hartley introduced Norene Hartley, who wanted to announce that copies of the town's newly-completed Master Plan are available to residents at both the Town Meeting and the Town Hall. The updated Master Plan was completed in April, 2000 by the Master Plan Committee with advisors Herr & James Associates, and was printed by Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School.

"There are some pretty interesting decisions with which way to go for future zoning," Ms. Hartley said. "Here it is — read it, enjoy it."

Under ARTICLE 1, voters were asked to accept the annual report of all town officers and committees; the article passed unanimously.

Under ARTICLE 2, Town Meeting was asked to set the salaries of various elected officials as follows for FY2001: Town Moderator ($100); Selectmen ($2,900 each member and $3,800 for Chairman); Assessors ($7,000 each); Town Treasurer ($16,000); Tax Collector ($16,000); Town Clerk ($16,000); Tree Warden ($500); Constables ($7 per hour); Highway Surveyor ($45,500); Board of Health ($1,500 for Chairman and $1,250 each member); and Herring Inspector ($315).

One voter questioned why the Tax Collector's salary was jumping from $9,000 to $16,000.

"In prior years, the FinCom has not recommended salaries," FinCom Chairman Michael Costa said. "Historically, the Town Treasurer, Tax Collector, and Town Clerk have been at about the same rate. Last year, the Treasurer and Town Clerk asked for a salary increase, but the Tax Collector did not. We believe this will bring them all in line this year."

Likewise, voters wanted to know why the Board of Health (BOH) salaries were tripled this year. "In looking at salaries for elected officials, the BOH had not received any significant salary increase since 1985," Mr. Costa said. "We felt it was an appropriate request ... based on looking at surrounding towns."

With that, ARTICLE 2 passed via majority vote.

Under ARTICLE 3, voters were asked to accept the provisions of Chapter 41 section 19K and Chapter 41 section 108P of the General Laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts which provide for the compensation to the Town Clerk, Treasurer and Tax Collector for becoming "certified" in their respective offices on an annual basis. If all three maintain their certified status, they are paid an additional $1,000 per year.

"One reason we thought it was appropriate to do this was that at a future date if someone was elected to one of these positions but is not certified, they would not get the $1,000," Mr. Costa said. "This is a way of rewarding those who seek certification." The article passed unanimously.

Under ARTICLE 4, voters were asked to approve one of two proposed Personnel By-Law amendments to establish a new Classification and Compensation Plan for town employees. There was disagreement between the FinCom and Board of Selectmen on this matter, however. The FinCom supported an increase of only 90 percent of current market value — or $25,128.13 over the current budget. But the Selectmen wanted to make a full 100 percent jump from existing salary levels, or $62,305.48.

"The FinCom has a different opinion than the Selectmen," Mr. Costa said. "(A) consultant looked at each one of the jobs and recommended what they believed to be (fair) market rates for each position ... suggesting we go 100 percent. But the FinCom felt we go for 90 percent. The minimum increase is three percent ... but many people are getting much more than that."

a comprehensive psychotherapy practice

Your adolescent... Are you concerned?

We recognize that for many students and parents, the transition from the structure of the school year to the freedom of summer can be a stressful one. Structure helps ease anxiety and for some adolescents, connecting with others in a positive group experience can be extremely helpful. For parents, it is a comfort to know that when their teen is out of school, there is still weekly contact with a professional. We offer an opportunity for ongoing assessment during the months when young people are at risk because of the unstructured nature of the season.

increases across-the-board, we would have been giving them (only a) $35,000 increase (this year)," Selectman Patricia Ryan said. "It's our fault — not the employees fault — that we didn't fight for their increases on an annual basis. We spent money to find out where we should place our employees. I may not agree with every item on there ... but starting at 90 percent is starting in a hole. If we're going to make an adjustment, it seems to me it would make sense to start at 100 and not 90 percent (of market value)."

"Some of our employees have been working here patiently on promises that they would be getting a salary comparable to what they're worth," added Selectmen Chairman Naida Parker.

"I've been in other Town Halls and I've heard people (grumbling) about employees," resident Norene Hartley said. "I think we ought to pay them as much as we can for what they're worth."

With that, voters approved the 100 percent compensation plan, as amended, via an "overwhelming majority vote," according to Town Moderator Greenwood Hartley.

Under ARTICLE 5, voters were asked to accept the provisions of Massachusetts General Laws Chapter 32B, Section 10A, authorizing the town to provide dental benefits as part of group general or blanket insurance to town employees.

"If the town votes to accept it, it doesn't mean

LYME DISEASE

My dog gets lots of ticks. Will he get Lyme disease?
Lyme disease is caused by a bacteria and is transmitted by ticks. Unfortunately, Lyme disease is common in this area.

What signs will my dog show?
The most common sign associated with Lyme disease is lameness, often associated with fever. Many dogs show signs, while others are intermittently lame.

Is Lyme disease preventable or treatable?
Yes to both. Vaccines are available for dogs that are fairly effective in preventing Lyme disease. If your dog gets Lyme disease, it can usually be cured by treatment with antibiotics.

we'll be able to have a dental plan," said Town Treasurer John Hall. "Our current benefits are offered through Plymouth County, but there is a participation requirement ... we don't meet the requirements right now." Mr. Hall added that if they do offer the option, it will cost the town an additional $20,000 (which has already been included in the General Operating Budget under ARTICLE 6. With that, the article passed via majority vote.

Under ARTICLE 6, voters unanimously approved the total $9.5 million General Operating Budget for FY2001, including an additional $5,000 added to the Plumb Memorial Library budget to maintain a Children's Librarian position. "If we treat our employees well, we can treat our children well," said Kirby Gilmore, moving to amend the line item.

Town Meeting voters also approved:

- $62,305.48 adjustment to Wage and Salaries for FY2001 (to meet the previously approved 100 percent compensation plan increase) under ARTICLE 7;
- $146,500 in Capital Improvement Expenditures to purchase two toughbook laptops for the Police Department cruisers ($20,000), a four-wheel drive vehicle for the Fire Department ($35,000), a mower for the Highway Department ($66,500), and the town's half-share of a Recycling Truck with Marion ($25,000) under ARTICLE 8;
- $2,042 for various Natural Resource Expenses including the planting of shellfish in Marion ($300), Silvershell Beach in Marion ($300), support for the Tri-Town River Commission ($300), and the Buzzards Bay Action Committee ($1,142) under ARTICLE 9;

Letter to the Editor

To the Editor:

For over fifty years, I have not strayed far from Mattapoisett Neck. I call it "my heaven." But this heaven has a problem. We have access to the invigorating salt air, to our beloved bay which offers the best in boating and swimming and to the quietness from the day's toil and noise that nourishes our souls. So what is our great problem?

We shudder when the weather forecaster predicts anything over an inch of rain or when we are told that a storm is approaching. Outmoded cesspools, even newer installations, do not work when the water table rises. At town board meetings it has been stated that the most advanced technology is only 50 to 80 percent efficient. "No showers — just soap and rinse," "flush only when necessary," "I'm off to the laundromat" — these become the neighborhood's battle cries.

Our town officials say, "No problem. Update your systems to comply with Title V." Because the officials, in most cases, are adverse to the installation of closed tanks, they would have us build above-ground cement boxes or mounds on our small lots leaving no room for gardens, greenery, lawn chairs, areas for play and repose. If this policy continues, ugly replaces beautiful.

So after much consideration, I helped to rally the beach communities to pursue extension of town sewer. Nowhere is the need greater. Opponents to this project fear that installation of sewer pipes will enable more construction on the Neck, drastically changing the character of the area. We need sewer extension and at the same time we need safeguards, through zoning, town codes, land preservation, that will prevent unlimited construction on the Neck.

We must stop polluting our bay. We must have livable conditions in our homes whether it be a time of drought or the rainy season. We must preserve the character of our special section of Mattapoisett. I plead to townspeople, the town boards, our professional advisors, residents of (Mattapoisett) Neck — all concerned — to come forth, speak up with constructive ideas and help us make wise decisions that will benefit our locality and solve this heaven's problem.

Sincerely,
Natalie Richards

Mattapoisett Educator Honored

By Virginia Morgan

Clara D. Morgan, teacher for 33 years and 21 years retired from the Mattapoisett school system, has received many local and state awards for her efforts with young people.

But in April, Ms. Morgan was recipient of a National Award given by the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution (NSDAR) Literacy Challenge Committee. The Northeastern Division Award was given for the member making an outstanding difference in the Promotion of Literacy. Ms. Morgan, who is a Past Regent, has been a member of the New Bedford Chapter DAR for 15 years.

Ms. Morgan was invited to attend the Continental Congress Convention in April in Washington, DC but was unable to attend. She received her award by mail signed by Elizabeth M. McKeen, National Chairman and President General Georgane Ferguson Love.

Over the past year Ms. Morgan has given 118 hours of teaching remedial reading. She taught a woman in her late 40s to read and helped a second grade student and a third grade student, both of whom had difficulty in reading. She noted the award is based only on volunteering.

Ms. Morgan said: "It is quite an honor to be recognized nationally. This is the first adult I have ever taught to read, and I found it a thrilling and rewarding

Ms. Morgan has taught elementary grades for 33 years and holds a Masters Degree in Remedial Reading from Boston University. She retired 21 years ago from the Mattapoisett school system. Since then, she has volunteered as an aide at Center School, served on the Mattapoisett School Committee, and has done other tutoring.

Although she has been an avid reader and teacher, Ms. Morgan explained she didn't enjoy reading until she went into teaching. "In my early school years, I was taught the look and say method," she said. "When I started teaching the phonics method of reading was being used. Now, I'm a firm believer in phonics to learn to read."

One of the highlights of her year of volunteer service came when the adult announced proudly she was able to fill out a job application herself. Previously, she had to have assistance. Only one word gave the woman a problem, but she was able to work it out from the content of the sentence. Ms. Morgan noted this ability shows the woman learned the concept of reading.

When the third grade student exuberantly exclaimed, "Boy, I'm doing good now, aren't I?", Ms. Morgan felt the hours of volunteering had all been worthwhile.

The League's new education study will be an examination and evaluation of the financial, academic, and political effects on the three member towns of adopting full regionalization, pre-Kindergarten through Grade 12, in the Old Rochester School District. To participate in the study, League membership is not required, and the study committee is particularly eager to include people from all three towns.

At present, the regional senior and junior high schools are governed by a school committee of members elected from each of the three towns. Local schools (pre-K through Grade 6) are governed by locally-elected committees. The grade schools and the secondary schools employ the same superintendent, and share other

Cookies' Fortune

BY ROB GONSALVES
local@wanderer.com

■ Small Time Crooks. Starring Woody Allen and Tracey Ullman. Directed by Woody Allen. Running time: 95 minutes. MPAA rating: PG. At Cinema 140 in New Bedford.

Woody Allen's new one, Small Time Crooks, is undoubtedly his biggest financial success in years — $11 million as of last weekend — and having seen it, I can understand why: It's very broad. Gone is the venom of Deconstructing Harry, the insider satire of Celebrity, the fancy structure of Mighty Aphrodite and Sweet and Lowdown — all recent Woody flops. Somewhere in the middle of Small Time Crooks, a cookie mogul explains the success of a rival cookie tycoon: all you have to do is make a product the public wants. Small Time Crooks is a pretty good cookie.

Woody downscales his IQ to play Ray Winkler, a former (and inept) criminal turned dishwasher. Ray has a scheme to rob a bank: he'll purchase an abandoned storefront nearby, and dig a tunnel up into the bank. Ray's wife Frenchy (Tracey Ullman) can't believe what she's hearing, but eventually she goes along with it, running a cookie business out front while Ray and his cronies (the hilarious trio of Jon Lovitz, Michael Rapaport, and Tony Darrow) drill away in the basement.

From this slapsticky farce, complete with gushing water mains and wrong tunnel turns, Small Time Crooks takes an abrupt, hard left into social criticism. I'd so enjoyed the acting teamwork of the four bumbling thieves, capably abetted by Ullman's derisive Frenchy and Elaine May as her spacey cousin May, that the second half of the film came as a slight letdown. The jokes keep coming, but this time they're at the expense of the rich snobs Ray and Frenchy find themselves among when their cookie business unexpectedly turns into a gold mine.

Frenchy wants to become part of high society, and gets lessons in art and culture from a slick art dealer (Hugh Grant, returning to the aristocratic-bastard roles he used to play before he became a dithering marquee name). Ray can't stand the pretense and glitz of the upscale New York life — he yearns to move to Miami, fill up on cheeseburgers and beer, and hit the racetrack every day. Perhaps part of the secret of the movie's success is that it tells the rest of the country that the high life in the big apple — always held up for envy — isn't worth aspiring to.

We've seen much of this before; it feels like a half-remembered episode of The Honeymooners, where Ralph and Alice strike it rich and find that money can't buy happiness. (I'm not sure if there ever was such an episode, but other sitcoms have done it; in any event, Woody explicitly makes this movie an homage to Jackie Gleason and company.) The movie focuses on how money changes (or doesn't change) Ray and Frenchy, but I wanted to see more of Ray's cronies, who get absorbed into the cookie company as executive officers. And come to think of it, doesn't Frenchy have any friends? We never see any besides her cousin May.

We're glad the cousin is around, though, because Elaine May — a screenwriter these last few decades, who has done very little performing since her stage days with Mike Nichols — swipes the movie right out from under Allen and Ullman. (Call her a big-time crook.) Whether she's giving a weather report to baffled stuffed shirts at a dinner party or blurting out secrets to a camera crew, Cousin May is completely herself, despite her large share in the cookie profits. She's the same person; she just has a nicer apartment now. Unlike Frenchy, she has no aspirations to loftier things; unlike Ray, she's comfortable with her wealth. So she emerges as the movie's slightly daffy hero, and Elaine May gives a quietly heroic comic performance to match. She's the mint in this particular cookie.

DEPRECIATION VS APPRECIATION

If you want to play the waiting game when buying a big-ticket item like a car or a home, there is a big difference. If you cannot afford that $10,000 car today, you can wait five years and purchase that very same car for $5,000. That's because cars and almost everything else you buy (with the notable exception of homes) DEPRECIATE in value over the years.

If you are waiting to buy a particular home, in five years, it will probably cost you a great deal more than it is selling for now. That is because homes APPRECIATE in value over the years.

The only way to fight this price inflation syndrome is to join it. If there is no way you can come up with the money for the ultimate home of your choice, look for a home at a price you CAN afford.

It's a matter of timing. Since the value of your home will probably increase faster than your savings account, trading up to a better home will be easier the second time around. Why not call us. We an help!

This Week's Horoscope

by Linda Black

Aries (March 21-April 19). You're intelligent. Romance looks good. Work hard to make up for the time you've missed.

Taurus (April 20-May 20). You're looking for new ways to make money, and you're creative. Get what you need for your home. Show off your talents, as well as your shrewd shopping ability.

Gemini (May 21-June 21). You're learning quickly. Soak up the new material. Move slowly, though. Something you're trying may not work as well as you expected.

Cancer (June 22-July 22). You might be worried. Talk with a good friend, and you'll be reassured. You're sharp with business.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22). You're obviously the best person for the leadership position. You could run into a little trouble, but nothing you can't handle.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). You have opportunities. Watch for them. You're under pressure. Think it over by yourself, and you'll reach the wisest decision.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). Your luck should hold. You're popular. Don't exhaust yourself. A decision needs to be made.

Scorpio (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). You're still wheeling and dealing, and most likely making lots of money. You may be frustrated, though. You are being tested.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Partnerships are important. You may get the chance to travel. Expect a quiz at work. Somebody will find something to complain about.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). You'll have no trouble staying busy. You may be able to work a good deal with other people's money. Heed the advice of an attorney or wise partner.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). You might want to make a romantic commitment. Think it over carefully 'cause this decision could change your life.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20). You will most likely work hard on a household project. Difficulties arise soon, so it's OK to bring in help.

If You're Having a Birthday This Week: What you already know should pay off well. What you're learning is an investment in your future.
